Final WS Playoff Spots On The Line As Pool Play Ends

48+ Central Division Los Angeles MSBL Dodgers batter Bobby Antczak singles to right-center field and drives in two runs during yesterday's 5-2 win over the Taos Telegemics.

Final Day Of Pool Play And The Desire To Win Is Intense At All Levels

38+ And 48+ Central Division Wildcards Likely To Be Determined By Runs Allowed

By Tom Prendergast

Forget about the pressure of a game seven, how about needing one more win just to get into the playoffs? That's what several teams in all divisions are facing today. "Win and hope the other guy loses," said Kansas City Knights manager Scott Zavelo, whose team is 2-2-1 and in the 38+ Central Division. His team has five points and one game left to play. Several other teams are in the same spot.

The first tie-breaker in each division is head-to-head play. However, if your team is in a crossover division or all of the teams with the same record didn't get a chance to play each other then the determining tie-breaker is runs allowed category.

Even with a complimentary packet of Bio Freeze that every player received, almost every guy participating in the tournament is nursing a sore body part. But despite the tired legs and weary arms, players want to keep playing for as long as they can no matter what the pain or the odds. Several teams are going to end up with 4-2 records, so the determining factor for wildcard spots will be the least runs allowed.
